WINERY OF THE SEASON

At Heritage Estate Wines, the land shapes every glass. Its two vineyards sit at contrasting elevations in the Granite Belt, each with distinct altitude and soil, and suited to different varietals and styles of wine. The result is wines with a strong sense of place that showcase the diversity of Queensland's Granite Belt.

High in the northern Granite Belt at Cottonvale, the 960-metre vineyard is the home of the whites. Its older, less mineralised soils give the Chardonnay, Fiano and Savagnin a structure and flavour you won't find elsewhere in the region. Down at Ballandean, at 840 metres, the reds come into their own, including an Old Vine Shiraz from 60-year-old vines.
